Requirements to be Godfather & Godmother :

One Godparent is necessary. But if there are two, it must be one man (Godfather) and one woman (Godmother). Both Godparents must be baptized and regularly practicing Catholics in good standing with the Church. If you are unable, to secure a second Catholic Godparent, you may ask a friend or relative who is baptized non-Catholic to stand with you as a "Christian Witness" to the baptism of your child. Over and above the two Catholic Godparents (or one Catholic Godparent and one Christian Witness) however, we are unable to give special recognition to additional "Christian Witness" in the rite, or with commemorative certificates, or to enter them into the Sacramental Register.
