THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD:

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which commemorates Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist in the Jordan River. This important event marks the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry and reveals the mystery of the Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

As the Gospels recount, when Jesus emerged from the waters, the heavens opened, the Holy Spirit descended like a dove, and the voice of the Father proclaimed: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased” (Mark 1:9–11). Though sinless, Jesus chose to be baptized to identify fully with humanity and to fulfill God’s plan of salvation.

In the Roman Catholic Church, this feast is celebrated on the Sunday after the Epiphany, bringing the Christmas season to a close and leading us into Ordinary Time. It invites us to reflect on our own baptism, through which we became children of God and members of the Christian community.

May this feast renew our commitment to live our faith with gratitude, humility, and love, following Christ in our daily lives.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY: JANUARY 18-25

The Conference’s recently launched National Ecumenical Strategy lays particular stress upon “spiritual ecumenism,” defined as “the heart of the ecumenical movement.” This includes “praying for and with other Christians, promoting prayer for unity in local parishes, and participation in the planning and leadership of interdenominational prayer services for various intentions – especially that of Christian unity.” A privileged opportunity for such activities is the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU), observed in 2026 from 18-25 January, with the theme “There is one body and one Spirit” (Ephesians 4:4).

WINTER TESTS PERSEVERANCE: Cold, darkness, and shorter days can bring laziness, discouragement, or isolation. When faith is practiced only when life feels warm and easy, it becomes fragile. Continuing in winter teaches faithfulness, discipline, and endurance - showing that our faith is rooted, not seasonal. In short: Winter teaches us that faith is not just for celebration, but for survival, growth, and hope. Practicing it continuously keeps us steady, warm, and rooted—no matter the season.
